become a world changer.

"Oxford Graduate School has been instrumental in my professional development as a chaplain for one of the largest non-profit agencies for families and children in the state of Texas. Oxford Graduate School allowed me to personalize my dissertation research in an area that will specifically impact public and private residential care facilities for youth. I am convinced that my research at Oxford Graduate School could very possibly change the way non-profit agencies like ours operate."

– Keith Rice, Chaplain, Itasca, TX
